Clinical Masters™ magazine

The Clinical Masters™ magazine is published annually to complement the Clinical Masters™ programs. It provides comprehensive information about the content of the programs, the facilities and the instructors, and presents clinical cases from the faculty members.

Additionally, the publication features educational opportunities and events from private as well as public institutes and universities and also presents corporate educational centers and events.

This English-language magazine is the official Tribune CME member publication and is distributed to the Tribune CME institutes, Tribune CME program graduates, and at all major international and national meetings and exhibitions, including IDS, EAO, ICOI World Congress, BDIA and the FDI Annual World Dental Congress, to name a few.

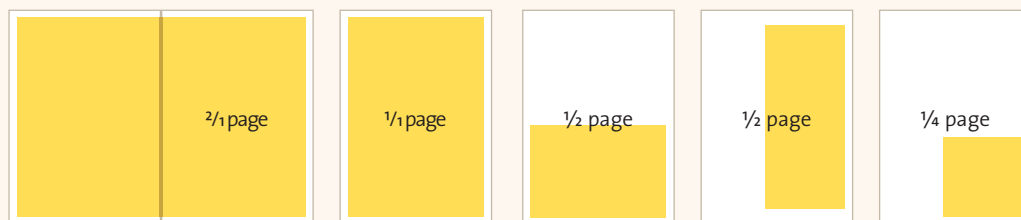

Please note: The publication of clinical articles and case studies is limited in each edition. Therefore, submissions are subject to review and approval by the editor.
