ICOI and German affiliates will celebrate World Congress in Berlin, Germany

Author: Craig Johnson, ICOI, Executive Director

Berlin will be the site of the ICOI’s World Congress XXXII.

The International Congress of Oral Implantologists (ICOI), its component society, the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Orale Implantologie (DGOI), and German affiliate, Bundesverband der Implantologisch Tätigen Zahnärzte in Europa E.V (BDI ZEDI), will join hands as they present ICOI’s World Congress XXXII in the capital of Germany, Berlin.

This year’s World Congress will be held from 15 to 17 October. The venue for the meeting will be the Maritime Hotel Berlin. The theme for this congress will be “Evidence-Based Innovations in Oral Implantology.”

True to the title of World Congress, the faculty will bring together clinicians and academicians from around the world as they present the latest in dental implantology on topics such as soft-tissue applications around implants, growth factors in surgical healing, treatment of periimplantitis, digital communication skills for minimally invasive surgery and much more.

On Thursday morning, (October 15), the congress will begin with a four-hour “Young Implantologists” program. Delegates to this congress will want to take advantage of what is new on the horizon as presented by “up and coming” implantologists Roberta Gasparro (Italy), Teruaki Homma (Japan), Elisa Choukroun (France), Filipa Braga (Portugal), Paolo Nuzzolo (Italy), Daniel Grubeau (Germany), Giuseppe Pantaleo (Italy), Nicolaos Mallios (Greece), Tom Giblin (Australia), Gil Asafrana (Israel) and Thilo Damaskos (Germany).

The afternoon will be filled by several no-charge pre-congress courses given by our sponsors. Following these educational opportunities will be a welcome reception in the exhibit hall.

Then Friday and Saturday (October 16 and 17), will feature ICOI’s main podium speakers: Drs. Ata Anil (Turkey), Joseph Choukroun (France), Mariusz Duda (Poland), Galip Gurel (Turkey), Fouad Khoury (Germany), Richard Leesungbok (South Korea), Pascal Marquardt (Germany), Jaafar Mouhyi (Morocco), Ady Palti (Germany), Yvan Poitras (Canada), Eric Rompen (Belgium), Illia Roussou (Greece), Gerard Scortecci (France), Ralf Smeets (Germany), Paolo Trisi (Italy) and Konstantinos Valavanis (Greece).

A social highlight for the congress will be the Gala Dinner to be held on Friday evening at the beautiful Restaurant Maritim. The gala will immediately follow the presentation of ICOI’s awards ceremony and promises to be a night to remember. The food and drink will be complemented by a rousing band brought in from Baden-Baden who will entertain the guests as they dance into the night.

Berlin is not only the capital of Germany, but also its cultural center, famous now for its museums, its philharmonic orchestra, multiple opera companies, modern architecture and captivating nightlife. Visitors to the new Berlin can also see reminders of the city’s 20th century history, including the Holocaust memorial, the Berlin Wall memorial and the Brandenburg Gate, a symbol of Berlin’s unification. Plan to visit Germany with ICOI at this perfect time of year: autumn in Berlin.
