Copyright Regulations

The international C.E. magazine of laser published by Dental Tribune America is printed quarterly. The magazine’s articles and illustrations are protected by copyright. Reprints of any kind, including digital mediums, without the prior consent of the publisher are inadmissible and liable to prosecution. This also applies to duplicate copies, translations, microfilms and storage and processing in electronic systems. Reproductions, including excerpts, may only be made with the permission of the publisher.

All submissions to the editorial department are understood to be the original work of the author, meaning that he or she is the sole copyright holder and no other individual(s) or publisher(s) holds the copyright to the material. The editorial department reserves the right to review all editorial submissions for factual errors and to make amendments if necessary.

Dental Tribune America does not accept the submission of unsolicited books and manuscripts in printed or electronic form and such items will be disposed of unread should they be received.

Dental Tribune strives to maintain the utmost accuracy in its clinical articles. If you find a factual error or content that requires clarification, please contact Group Editor Robin Goodman at r.goodman@dental-tribune.com. Opinions expressed by authors are their own and may not reflect those of Dental Tribune America and its employees.

Dental Tribune cannot assume responsibility for the validity of product claims or for typographical errors. The publisher also does not assume responsibility for product names or statements made by advertisers.

The responsibility for advertisements and other specially labeled items shall not be borne by the editorial department. Likewise, no responsibility shall be assumed for information published about associations, companies and commercial markets. All cases of consequential liability arising from inaccurate or faulty representation are excluded. General terms and conditions apply, and the legal venue is New York, New York.
