TERMS AND CONDITIONS
— Clinical Masters™ Program

Disclaimer

This is not a diploma course. Certificates (not diplomas) are awarded to participants by Tribune Group, an ADA CERP recognized provider, with support from its partner educational institutions. Certificates are only awarded if participants successfully complete the program. Participants must be either licensed dentists or dental students. Tribune CME assumes no responsibility for the outcome of patient treatment skills and techniques that are learned during the program. Tribune CME assumes no responsibility for any injury sustained by participants during any session or while travelling to or from any session. Tribune CME reserves the right to refuse registration to any applicant and to cancel or modify courses without prior notice. Tribune CME assumes no responsibility for expenses incurred by participants.

Important Notes

In order to reserve a seat, participants must submit a course application. All sessions and educational material (clinical videos, online library) are in English. Some programs have interpreters available. Please check with the local organizer. Participants may bring their own interpreters provided they do not disturb the flow of the class. Participants wishing to attend a makeup session must notify the Tribune CME team immediately in order to make the necessary arrangements for the next available time and location.

Travel visa protocol

Participants requiring visas to travel to Clinical Masters™ Program destinations outside their home country must provide the following:

- The full name of the participant as it appears on his or her passport
- The full name of any other person traveling with the participant as it appears on his/her passport
- Passport number
- The number of days for which the participant will be in the destination country, as well as the dates
- The complete address and contact information of the national embassy to which the letter of request for a visa must be sent

Payment and cancellation policy

- Installment payment options are available to participants upon request.
- The initial deposit is non-refundable.
- Installment payments are non-refundable for the immediate upcoming session.
- In the event that a session is cancelled or postponed, the organizer will offer a similar alternative or a refund will be granted to participants if no alternative is available.
