LAKE COMO INSTITUTE
— Como, Italy

Location
The Lake Como Institute is located in the town of Como, famous for its silk manufacturers. Within what remains of its twelfth-century walls is a charming historical center. The town is set on the shores of Lake Como, situated in a basin surrounded by wooded mountains and said to be the most beautiful of the Italian lakes. There is plenty to see while strolling around, including stunning villas, gardens, and sites of historical and cultural significance.

What to see and do

Como is a very small old town and the best way to get to know it is to walk around and discover its narrow passages, old streets, quaint markets and piazzas, stopping to enjoy a cappuccino on the terrace of one of its many cafés.

The remarkable eleventh-century Romanesque Basilica di Sant’Abbondio has a beautiful fresco series inside the apse and a university occupies what was once the cloister.

Lake Como’s shores feature a varied landscape of fields, forests, imposing rocks, charming villages facing the lake and magnificent mansions with beautiful gardens, particularly from Cernobbio to Gravedona and Bellagio. The following include only some of the innumerable sights:

The middle of Lake Como, where its three branches come together, offers a spectacular view of the whole promontory of Bellagio, of the northern Grigna mountains overlooking Valsassina, and of the upper basin against the backdrop of the Alps if the skies are clear. It has the mildest climate and can be reached by boat.

Besides the glorious views of the Lecco branch of the lake, which turns southwards, there are natural springs, like Fiumelatte, described by Leonardo da Vinci, and the impressive Orrido di Bellano (gorge), situated not far from the Renaissance Villa Monastero at Varenna.
