Distinguished speakers highlight 34th Yankee Dental Congress, Jan. 28 through Feb. 1, 2009

Come Aboard is the theme of the 34th annual Yankee Dental Congress® (YDC), New England’s largest dental meeting, which will be held Jan. 28 through Feb. 1, 2009, at the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center (BCEC).

The YDC is the fifth largest dental meeting in the country and is sponsored by the Massachusetts Dental Society, in cooperation with the Connecticut, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island and Vermont dental associations. The estimated 50,000 dental professionals expected to attend the convention in Boston next year will not only discover YDC 34 to be the most educational, fun and informative, but also filled with entertaining events, top-notch speakers, 500-plus exhibitors and more than 450 educational courses from which to choose.

On Thursday, the Big Apple Circus Circus To Go! will entertain and delight with acrobats, jugglers, clowns and wirewalkers. Have lunch with author Dennis Lehane, best-selling author of Mystic River and Gone Baby Gone. Friday evening, the YDC presents the first-ever Comedy Night, starring comedians Frank Caliendo and Kathleen Madigan.

Live from San Diego, it’s AAID!

Surgeries broadcast live are the highlight of this year’s annual meeting

The final live surgery by Joseph Y.K. Kan, DDS, MS, a professor at Loma Linda University, focused on “Surgical Biotype Transformation During Immediate Implant Placement in the Esthetic Zone: You Be the Judge.”

The session began with an explanation of the patient’s history and video from surgical preparation earlier in the day for the implant placement. During this surgery, the audience again was asked to submit any questions for Kan via the moderator, which many participants did, and, later in the session, the audience “voted” through audience response keypads on the question Kan asked regarding the techniques shown in the surgery.

The question was: “How many of you believe this (tissue graft) technique is able to...”
Oral Health America to hold 19th annual gala dinner and auction

Oral Health America, a non-profit organization that has been dedicated to improving oral health for all Americans for more than 50 years, will hold its 19th Annual Gala Dinner and Silent Auction Feb. 26, 2009 at Navy Pier in Chicago. The event will raise funds to support educational and service programs designed to improve oral health.

The Oral Health America Gala, held each year during the Chicago Dental Society Midwinter Meeting, is one of the dental industry’s premier networking events. The “party on the pier” has become so popular that it sells out early. For this reason, organizers are urging attendees to purchase their tickets early to avoid disappointment. The black-tie-optional evening features dinner, dancing and a silent auction. Oral Health America is also seeking event sponsors at the Gold ($5,000), Platinum ($5,000) and Diamond ($10,000) levels.

The Oral Health America 19th Annual Gala Dinner and Silent Auction will take place 6:30–11 p.m. on Feb. 26. Tickets are $285 each ($300 after Feb. 1, if still available); a table for 10 can be purchased for $2,500 ($2,750 after Feb. 1, if still available).

To reserve tickets or to get information on sponsorships or donations please contact Joe Donohue at OHA by calling (312) 836-9900 or e-mail him at joe@oralhealthamerica.org.
