GDC appoints new committee members

The General Dental Council has appointed new members to its independent Appointments Committee - which monitors its Fitness to Practise Panel.

The role of the Appointments Committee is to oversee the training and performance of the General Dental Council (GDC)’s independent Fitness to Practise Panel, made up of 76 members, and recruit new members as required.

In the future it will also be responsible for recommending members for the Council’s Investigating Committee, which considers allegations of impaired fitness to practise and decides whether a case should be referred to one of the Practice Committees.

She said: ‘All those joining the new Committee bring a wealth of invaluable experience from a variety of sectors, and I look forward to working with them to ensure that the GDC’s high standards continue to be met.’

The other new members are Nicola Billot, currently working as a dental nurse manager for Greater Healthcare NHS Trust; Jeanne Goulding, a lay member of the General Medical Council’s Fitness to Practise Panels and a management consultant.

John Hunt, chief executive of the British Dental Association from 1992 to 2000; Ray McAndrew, clinical director for Community Dental Services in Glasgow; Marcia Roberts, chief executive of the Recruitment and Employment Confederation; James Walker, independent assessor for the Office of the Commissioner for Public Appointments.
