‘Unworkable and illogical’ proposals

The Dental Defence Union (DDU) has attacked plans to establish a minimum indemnity for doctors and dentists. The consultation document ‘Fundamentally flawed’ by the DDU’s council is available from http://www.ddu.org.uk.

Robert Nolan, who has run a practice in Liverpool, was sentenced to 36 weeks in jail for claiming for fraud rather than a public benefit.

Nolan was convicted of 20 offences of obtaining a benefit by deception. Sixteen convictions related to fictitious patients, with £5,000 in costs and imposed a three-month curfew. Nolan will now appear in front of the General Dental Council conduct committee.

Nolan was convicted of 20 offences of obtaining a benefit by deception. Sixteen convictions related to fictitious patients, with £5,000 in costs and imposed a three-month curfew. Nolan will now appear in front of the General Dental Council conduct committee.

Nolan was convicted of 20 offences of obtaining a benefit by deception. Sixteen convictions related to fictitious patients, with £5,000 in costs and imposed a three-month curfew. Nolan will now appear in front of the General Dental Council conduct committee.

Nolan was convicted of 20 offences of obtaining a benefit by deception. Sixteen convictions related to fictitious patients, with £5,000 in costs and imposed a three-month curfew. Nolan will now appear in front of the General Dental Council conduct committee.

Nolan was convicted of 20 offences of obtaining a benefit by deception. Sixteen convictions related to fictitious patients, with £5,000 in costs and imposed a three-month curfew. Nolan will now appear in front of the General Dental Council conduct committee.