Dental Centre to discuss the vital second stage of the Clinical Governance Programme. Smile-on's programme was selected by the Dental Governance Committee (representing three local Primary Care Trusts) and the KSS Dental Postgraduate Deeney to enable practices to meet Clinical Governance core requirements.

KSS Postgraduate Dental Dean Stephen Lambert-Humble analysed feedback from the first stage, and Dental Clinical Governance Lead Bernard Switherm described the two-year journey of the 150 practices involved. Chief Dental Officer Barry Cockcroft celebrated the programme's significance before Dental Adviser Rattan provided strategies for continual improvement. Then, Smile-on's Noam Tamir introduced the Clinical Governance Performance Management (CGPM) system.

Because the responsibility for implementing satisfactory Clinical Governance lies with the PCTs, Smile-on has provided CGPM which allows practices to upload progress details to http://www.cgpmuk.com for easy monitoring by PCTs. Key features of CGPM include a free-of-charge messaging system and resources from the KSS Deeney and PCTs that are constantly updated. Practices that had already uploaded their information were awarded with Plaques, valid for one year.

This programme for this year’s Young Dentist Conference features contributions from a number of successful young dentists with their own businesses, others in specialist and a group of well-known figures who have achieved success in business beyond dentistry.

The speakers this year include, Shaheen Rahman a young barrister from a well-known London chambers, and Anna Heyes, founder and Managing Director of Liverpool-based Active Profile marketing and PR agency. Shaheen and Anna will speak during a session entitled Because you’re worth it; offering a practical approach to recognising and managing your worth.

This exciting one-day programme has been organised by Dental Protection together with the BDJ and BDA. As in previous years, delegates can expect challenging ideas and facts as well as lots of practical tips which are particularly relevant to recently qualified dentists.

The programme

Surgery 101 – Can we live without it
Some take the view that endodontics can never compete with implants. Others believe that extractions and implants are more predictable than long-term periodontics. And a few argue that orthodontics is a beauty treatment, not dentistry at all. If one of these three branches of dentistry had to be discontinued by NICE on the grounds of cost-effectiveness, which would it be? Three young dentists in specialist training will make a case for the preservation of their specialty:
• Phil Thomson (endodontics)
• Claudia Wellman (periodontics)
• James Grant (orthodontics)

Then you get the chance to vote, consigning one of them to the clinical waste.

Because you’re worth it
One of the challenges frequently reported by younger dentists, are the issues of cost, price, worth and value. One minute we are dental students with a debt – but overnight we become a professional person with earnings that many other young graduates can only dream about. Many young dentists find it difficult to discuss fees, and to feel comfortable about charging an appropriate amount for their services. An articulate trio:
• Neal Raval (dentist)
• Shaheen Rahman (barrister)
• Anna Heyes (Young Business Person of the Year 2007) will debate the issues, share their experiences and suggest ways to manage this aspect of a professional career.

Are you ready for this?
Three UK dentists, who aimed for success early in their careers, and have set up successful (but very different) practices, describe their journey and what they have learned from the experience.
• James Hamill (Blueapple in Northern Ireland)
• Chris Barrowman (Infinity Blu Dental Care in Pitlochry)
• Saaqib Ali (Sherwood Dental Practice in Birmingham).

Tickets are £100 (inc VAT) and include five hours verifiable CPD. Contact Sarah Garry on 020 7399 1339 or email sarah.garry@mps.org.uk.
